

Novomatic Gaming Spain launches new website

In line with the Novomatic group's internet presence Novomatic Gaming Spain has launched its new website: www.novomatic-spain.com

Based on the new corporate website design of the Novomatic Group, the Spanish subsidiary Novomatic Gaming Spain is now able to present a new web space where the company's entire product range for casinos, arcades, bingos and the street market can be viewed. A special section of the website is dedicated to customer service, offering user manual downloads and other types of documents for registered users.

Bernhard Teuchmann, Managing Director Novomatic Gaming Spain: "Our new website is a huge step forward for Novomatic Gaming Spain as we can now offer our customers all the information they require at the press of a button. The modern website design reflects our mission to offer top quality products that are designed to perform."
