

There were 43.092,- EUR to win with an ante of only 80,- EUR ✨

In the Card Casino Pokerworld started like each month the large Pokerworld tournament with a guaranteed prize money of 40.00,- EUR. 202 pokerplayers met for the Stud/Holdem mix tournament from 06.02. – 09.02.2002.

The secret of the ever more successfull becoming tournament is not only the play structure and the service, but also the fact that with few ante a high profit can be drawn. Every participant had daily the chance to qualify himself with an ante of only 80,- EUR and thus with the final, which took place on Saturday, play around a prize money of 43.092,- EUR. During the first three levels rebuys could be transacted and afterwards there was like always the possibility to transact an ADD on.

Daily nine players qualified themselves, so that on the final day up to 36 participants could play along. Because of double qualifications of individual participants, who played several times, 31 participated in the final (5 double qualifications). Like always it was a harmonious and exciting final. The fight lasted up to the early morning. „Harry“, who celebrated his birthday at the same time at the final table, dropped out prematurely and celebrated afterwards with his traveled poker friends. To the surprise of all Peter Mühlbeck won the first place and got a prize money of 14.650,- EUR, followed by the second-placed Manfred Spahn (7.750,- EUR) and the third-placed Ernst Pohn (4.750,- EUR).

Traditionally there was on the final day a large buffet with warm and cold meals for all cash and tournament players.

By now the next surprises are in the offing. The Casino

Pokerworld has an Opel cabrio on stage, which can be won by all participants of the popular cash game plays as a reward. Of course the [key:IC] will report in detail about that event.
