

Macao Gaming Show Co-organisers praise preparations for November show

With just a few weeks remaining until the opening of the second Macao Gaming Show, the event's co-organisers – Macau Jockey Club, Macau Slot and Macau Yat Yuen Canidrome – have reiterated their ongoing support and investment in the show, taking place at the Venetian Macao (November 18-20). Discussing the Asian event, billed as 'By Asia For The World', the companies said that they were all 'very excited' at the ongoing success of MGS, and were looking forward to the next edition of the show which features a contracted list of 122 exhibitors, drawn from Asia and beyond. In addition to receiving widespread commercial and government support from within Macau, MGS has also attracted a distinguished international line-up of thought leaders who will be appearing at the Macao Gaming Summit, which takes place alongside the main show.

Ross Zhang, Event Operation Manager for MGS, said: "Once again we are humbled by the encouragement we are receiving from our esteemed compatriots and co-organisers, who have supported the show from its inception and excited by their ongoing investment which goes a long way to ensuring that the Macao Gaming Show will reach its potential as the biggest and brightest gaming event in Asia."

Macau Jockey Club (#Z37) is one of the largest private employers of Macau. In 1991, the Macau Jockey Club was acquired by a consortium led by Dr Stanley Ho. All year round racing in Macau Jockey Club. Basically, there are two race meetings per week.

Macau Yat Yuen Canidrome (#Z37) is the famous greyhound racing in Asia, established long lasting for over half century, providing attractive gaming entertainment, and also the must item for the tourists.

Macau Slot (#Z37), Sociedade de lotarias e Apostas Mutuas de Macau, Lda (SL0T) founded in 1989, SL0T is the first government-franchised company in Asia to operate a sports betting business, we offers a wide range of wagering over 20,000 soccer and basketball matches live to our prestige customers every season and we offers over 20 betting items.

To find out about all the latest MGS preparations and news, follow MGS on twitter @MGS_HQ