

ISA-CASINOS at the WSOP in Las Vegas

(rs) The World Championship in Poker have started at the Binions Horseshoe in Las Vegas.

Same procedure as every year. Many European player will try their luck at the Binions Horseshoe. Mr. Reinhold Schmitt, the editor in chief of the [key:IC], will report directly from this event from 6 to 27 May. The [key:IC] has permanent contact with international poker player in Las Vegas who inform us about the latest trends.

Lothar Landauer, who has tried his luck since the 20 April has played for 4 times now, but has not qualified himself for any tournament yet.

Andreas Krause had no support from Fortuna and was not placed in the tournaments or satellites.

Manfred Daries, our „oldie“ among the players, played 5 times at the final table at the Supersatellites and won 4 times money and a treasured ticket over 10.000,- USD for the big WSOP Tournament in Texas Hold'em No Limit (as the [key:IC] reported).

Marcel Luske told us during an telephone call that the Dutch player will travel to Las Vegas to earn luster and dollars. Adele Bruijin, the poker manager of the Holland Casinos Amsterdam, told us that she will be on location to gather new experiences and to invite some international poker player to the „Master Classics of Poker“ in Amsterdam.

Some well known player will stay in the Bellagio to play the offered high Cash Games this year.

The [key:IC] will inform you as soon as possible. If you have any problems or queries please do not hesitate to ask Mr.

Denis Jörger (denis@isa-casinos.de) from 6 May to the 27 May.

Naturally the latest news and articles about the Casino world will be daily published during Mr. Schmitt's stay in Las Vegas.
