

The 10th International Gaming Awards delighted to welcome The Ritz Club London as a sponsor of the charity focused industry Awards ceremony

Colin Thompson organizer of The 10th IGA commented: „We are honoured that The Ritz Club London continued its support for the prestigious industry Awards ceremony. Working with such an historical, luxurious and trusted brand means that the Awards will continue to flourish as we celebrate excellence and at the same time support well deserving charities.“

The Ritz Club, a name known the world over. The club is without doubt, one of the most luxurious and exclusive private member's club to be found anywhere in the world. The Ritz name alone assures you of nothing but the best; from the most exclusive membership to the friendliest reception, the finest food and drink enjoyed in the utmost comfort, the highest levels of opulence – and, of course, the greatest gaming experience.
