

International Gaming Awards: Meet the Judging Panel 2018

The prestigious International Gaming Awards (IGA) announced Judging panel comprising industry experts – leading industry professionals, analysts and consultants.

The Awards ceremony international credentials are underlined still further by a fascinating line-up of judges from around the globe.

The IGA Judging panel will judge entries in 24 categories, winners will be announced on the night of the ceremony, which will take place on 5 February 2018 at the Grosvenor House Hotel, Park Lane, London.

The International Gaming Awards have focused attention on the highest achievements in the worldwide gaming industry in order to motivate and inspire those who make our industry and to educate and develop the tastes of those who we entertain. With a focus on creativity, innovation and social responsibility as opposed to commercial success alone, outstanding work can be recognised and rewarded.

Since the launch of the charity focused IGA Awards in 2008, the winners of the prestigious International Gaming Awards have benefited from an increased portfolio of clients, improved marketing exposure, recognition from peers in the industry and government bodies.

The International Gaming Awards is not only the chance to celebrate achievements, but will act as a window on to some of the very best work in the industry.

As always International Gaming Awards and its Sponsors will support deserving charities, please visit our charity support page.

There is no fee to take part; all we ask is that your entry be accompanied by a donation to our chosen charities. Please donate generously.
