

Giants delight as new Casino deal signed

Huddersfield Giants have signed a new sponsorship deal with Casinored.com for a second year.

The deal will see the Casinored.com logo placed on the sleeves of the new 2008 Giants Super League shirts.

Casino Red already offers online casino and poker, mobile bingo and casino, and has recently launched a full online and telephone sports betting service to add to its services.

The company are also a main sponsor of Huddersfield Town, and Giants Director of Business Development Sean Jarvis believes this new deal is excellent news.

“The relationship between the Giants and Casinored.com has developed well in its first year,” he said.

“And we are delighted that they have renewed the sleeve sponsorship deal for next season on the new KooGa produced shirts.

“These are exciting times at the Giants and it is fantastic news to have Casino Red on board again.”

These sentiments were echoed by Stuart Payne, Casino Red Chief Financial Officer, who added: ““We have thoroughly enjoyed our time as fans and sponsors of the Giants and we are delighted to be supporting the team for a second year.

“The great performances by the Giants in the second half of this season have been brilliant to watch, and to qualify for the play-offs for the first time in the club’s history was a fantastic achievement.

“There’s already more excited anticipation surrounding the Giants for the coming 2008 season and Casinored.com are proud to be part of this.”
