

SiGMA Malta networking event to celebrate global expansion

Exclusive Montekristo venue to host dinner and concert for 400 guests

SiGMA Group has announced a new iGathering event to be held in Malta on 25th March 2020. This exclusive event will bring together more than 400 friends and leaders from the worlds of iGaming and blockchain to celebrate the global expansion of the SiGMA and AIBC Summits ahead of the inaugural SiGMA Manila and Manila AIBC Summit, taking place June 8th-9th 2020.

Alongside the official announcement of SiGMA Group's global calendar of events for 2020-21, the evening extravaganza, to be held at Montekristo, Malta, will assemble VIPs, clients and partners to enjoy welcome drinks, a sit down dinner, and a concert by local Maltese bands.

Montekristo Venue

It's also business as usual for SiGMA Group, with networking opportunities high on the menu – the events company is renowned for its matchmaking iGathering events, facilitating growth and new business opportunities for the global iGaming and emerging tech sectors.

Eman Pulis, Founder and CEO, SiGMA Group, commented, “Our 2020 vision brings a clear view of the future for SiGMA Group and our friends and partners who join us as part of our global events roster. We’re keen to celebrate the incredible progress realised by our teams in transforming our business into a global tour-de-force, as well as the close relationships we’ve developed with so many amazing people and businesses across the various sectors in which we operate.”

Jonathan Shaw, COO for SiGMA Group added, “Even though we’re expanding into Asia, with our upcoming show in Manila, and new offices in the region, Malta remains our natural home and this is a great opportunity to celebrate our forthcoming activities with our close friends and partners.”

Tucked away behind the ancient Montekristo walls, the elegant Palazzo Candela exudes an intimate feel, bringing the luxury of the Renaissance era to a spectacular sit-down dinner for 400 guests, who can expect lavish food, flowing wine, fine music and other surprises!