

115 Million Tourists! China Tourism Rebounds During Labor Day Holiday

China's tourism market is steadily recovering from the impacts of Covid-19. By this May 1st, up to 70% tourist attractions had reopened for business. During this year's Labour Day holiday (May 1st-5th), Chinese attractions received 115 million tourists, reeling in about 47.56 billion yuan of income, as shown by data from the Ministry of Culture and Tourism.

„*Read the entire article (PDF document)*“: /wp-content/uploads/2020/05/China-Tourism-Rebounds-During-Labor-Day-Holiday.pdf