

Isle of Capri Iowa casino to reopen after temporary closure due to flooding

St. Louis (AP) – Isle of Capri Casinos Inc. on Tuesday said its casino property in Davenport, Iowa, will open at 3 p.m. following its temporary closure due to flooding.

„The flood waters have receded allowing safe access to our property for guests and employees,“ Mo Hyder, vice president and general manager, said in a statement.

It is the second time the casino was closed because of flooding, following an earlier closure in May.

Shares fell 16 cents, or 2.6 percent, to USD 6.10 during midday trading.
