

New online roulette game

Since first December, the queen of games, French roulette, is online to use for everybody.

Play and win 24 hours a day, without risk, that is, without losing money, and also easy to learn – not only for the experienced, but also for new players.

As known from other [key:IC] Online games, is the roulette without downloads and with a lot of extras directly playable. You can create your own profile, read the rules of the game, watch the top list, being watched while playing, and watch other people match for points and positions. You can also take a break for 15 minutes, after which you just start through playing this version of online roulette.

At the start of the game you'll receive 500 points credit, which will automatically get readjusted when you're losing. Just learn to play Small series, Big series, zero games, and the orphelines. With one click you activate the roulette, and the computer automatically places your bet. You can use any numbers and combinations just as if you were in a real casino to win the queen of games.

For the monthly winner a nice price will be given away. For December this includes some nice, and worthy gadgets.

Win a Christmas present of the „Festival Baden-Baden Veranstaltungen GmbH“ or several and very interesting computer games like „Casino Empire“, „Lord of the Rings“, „The First Emperor". These games are given away by Vivendi Universal Interactive Publishing.

[key:IC] wishes everybody a lot of luck in the online roulette. In the near future, the online roulette will be enhanced with more sounds, just as are used to from the Black-Jack game.
