

Visionary Keynote Speaker – Mitch Garber Announced for International Gaming Awards

1 October 2009, London – Online Gaming Expert, Harrah Interactive CEO Mitch Garber is featured speaker at the International Gaming Awards on 25 January 2010 in London. The International Gaming Awards (IGA) was launched in 2008 with the aim to support International charities and celebrate excellence and achievements in the gaming industry.

Mitch Garber had been invited to present his view on the future of Online Gaming.

Mitch Garber was a CEO of Partygaming, previous to that, Mr Garber was the CEO of Optimal Payments Inc. His background was as an attorney, and he had the distinction of opening the first ever gaming law practice in Canada. He advised US casino operators and equipment suppliers. Mr Garber currently CEO of Harrah Interactive Entertainment (HIE).

Mitch Garber

The third annual Awards ceremony, presented by Clever Duck Media, is expected to bring together International Gaming Community, participants from some of the most exciting and fastest-growing companies in the world from Offline and Online gaming background. The ceremony will take place 25 January 2010 in London.

To participate, nominate or find out more please visit <http://www.gaming-awards.com>.