To the company’s great pride and delight, NOVOMATIC’s internationally proven electronic table games (ETG) platform Novo Unity™ II was recognized in the segment “Table Game of the Year”. This ETG offer is built on a highly stable and reliable platform and presents a very broad range of games as well as game variants such as fully automated, entirely virtual or connected to a live-dealer operated table. With the integration within a WAN structure slot offers, innovative side bets as well as Jackpots and novel features like the brand new Going For Gold™ and Lucky Lady’s™ Roulette, the Novo Unity™ II is a safe bet for operators and a popular favourite with guests.

Jakob Rothwangl, NOVOMATIC VP Global Sales, says: “We are very honoured to receive this award. Novo Unity™ II products are very popular in the Asian region, with major arena installations in markets like Cambodia and Malaysia. The system offers a variety of options that enable a high level of customisation according to specific operator requirements – both in terms of infrastructure and game presentation – and it is complemented by a range of NOVOMATIC cabinet styles and high quality display options to suit any location. The popularity of this product with both operators and players remains extremely resilient, with recent figures showing Electronic Table Gaming’s popularity has increased notably in recent months.”

The Global Gaming Awards 2022 Asia honoured leading companies and industry executives for industry innovation and leadership achievements in a total of nine categories. Winners were selected by a judging panel consisting of more than 30 of the world’s leading industry experts.
