

International Gaming Awards: Calvin Ayre challenges the industry to help charities

I have asked my Foundation to send GBP 10,000 to UK based Oxfam to help with Haitian relief efforts.

But that's not all... I also want to challenge the rest of the industry to also contribute to Oxfam to help out in Haiti...and my private foundation will match any proven payment to Oxfam by an online gaming person up to USD 1,000,000.

Lets go guys... everyone making money has a duty to help.

For more information please visit the Calvin Ayre Foundation.

Calvin Ayre will also match donations to Care International charity, to donate please use link below
