

Principality of Liechtenstein: Call for Tenders for a Casino License

The new Gambling Act (Geldspielgesetz – GSG) and the Casino Ordinance (Spielbankenverordnung – SPBV) of the Principality of Liechtenstein allow the operation of a casino. Today, the government authorised the call for tenders. Until an evaluation report will be published, only one license will be granted. Applications for the license have to be filed by 31 March 2011, 4:30 p.m.
