

High Roller Week 2012 at Casino Seefeld

Edition No. 1 of the Cash Game Highlights is on the agenda in March

The Casinos Austria Poker Tour 2012 in Seefeld is already history and preparations for the next poker highlight at Casino Seefeld are under way.

Cash games will be the centre of attention from 19 to 25 March 2012. Many international pros have already announced that they will be attending High Roller Week Edition No. 1.

What began on a small scale four years ago has now become one of the most popular poker weeks at Casino Seefeld. The High Roller Week is about cash games – and only cash games. Although more attention is usually paid to tournaments, here it is the cash game players who get more than their money's worth. It begins with many of the players being invited to the five star luxury Klosterbräu Hotel, and the feel of Las Vegas is also conveyed in other respects.

The cash game programme, which includes No Limit Hold'em, Pot Limit Omaha and also Pot Limit Omaha Hi/Lo, is not for lowrollers. While the NLH starts with a buy-in of EUR 300 and the Blinds 5/10, the lowest limit for the PLO is 5/5 (buy-in EUR 200).

Although Casino Seefeld not one of Casinos Austria's largest in terms of size, it is definitely one of the most popular when it comes to poker. A touch of ski lodge charm, a relaxed and yet trustworthy atmosphere, and the mountains of course, which entice skiers at the end of March, make for a compelling combination. Accordingly, players from all over Europe enjoy coming to Casino Seefeld time and again. Many international pros have already announced that they will be attending the High Rollers Week, too, and there will certainly be no lack of hot action on cold winter evenings.

The date has already been set for High Roller Week Edition No. 2. Be sure to take note of 19 – 25 November 2012.

You too can experience the unforgettable atmosphere of a VIP poker event at Casino Seefeld.

We invite you to stay at the luxury Klosterbräu Hotel * or at the Falkensteiner Spa Hotel  during the event.
