

Wingo continues on the road to success

The turnkey solution provider wingo continues to increase its share in the online business. As a special offer in June due to the European Championship, Wingo currently offers its customers a 50% discount on the setup costs for all online products.

“The market for sports betting increasingly shifts toward the Internet – whether on the PC, the smartphone or on other mobile devices. With our special offer we want to reach everyone who wants to profit from this exciting business area. With our online products the betting customer has all possibilities you can nowadays expect from a modern betting operator.”

The special offer is valid until the 30.06.2012 for the products wingo.smartweb, wingo.easyweb and wingo.betweb.
