

AGI goes for British Columbia

Austrian Gaming Industries GmbH (AGI) has been awarded a Gaming Services Provider (Equipment Manufacturer/Supplier) Licence in the Province of British Columbia with the way now open for the triumphant march of AGI's Multi-Player product range to extend to this Canadian market. AGI, together with their experienced distributor TCS John Huxley, will supply Novo Multi-Roulette™ and Novo TouchBet™ Live-Roulette, the first true cross over product between live games and slots to the Canadian market. Jens Halle, Managing Director of AGI states: "This is another important milestone in the history of the Novomatic Group of Companies."

AGI is the production and distribution division of the Novomatic Group of Companies and has gained a reputation for excellent customer care and service based upon its market expertise. Novomatic Group of Companies has been established in the international gaming industry since 1980 and is doing business in more than 30 countries around the world.

Contact information:

Monika Emeresz, Marketing