

Casino Seefeld invites you to the Baccara World Championship

Enjoy, relax and feel well. That is what your host promises at the 6th Baccara World Championship, which takes place from 13th until 17th October in Seefeld. Seefeld in autumn means enjoying nature in its nicest form. And this can also be experienced by the baccara guests in the best traditional hotel in town: in the five star Hotel Klosterbräu. Swim in the pool, relax in the wellness and beauty landscape, breakfast for late risers and festive dinners.

During the World Championship the exciting game at the green table is offered daily from 15:00 in the comfortable and elegant casino. Charming, schooled croupiers ensure a perfect game handling. Casino director Kurt Steger and his team are available to offer the top class baccara guests the best service and exclusive support.

Daily there are limited day prizes from the house Mont Blanc. The World Champion who will be decided in a final game of the 11 „longest hands“ will receive a Chopard watch L.U.C. GMT with two time zones in yellow gold and silver coloured dial worth  $\approx$  8.725,- and a memorial trophy. The second and third places will be awarded with a week's holiday for two in Hotel

Klosterbräu and a valuable Casino Seefeld watch. And there are further prizes for the finalists in the fourth to the eleventh places.
