

Third EBPA ISA-CASINOS Black Jack city championship ✨

(rs) For many Black Jack friends it was again very exciting. Everyone can play the popular play of „Black Jack“ and participate free of charge without cash application in a tournament.

For the winners of the event, organized by the EBPA and the ISA-CASINOS, waited prizes in the value of 4000 DM: This tournament was also the possibility for the players, who are not so safe in this play, to get tips and suggestions for free in such a competition.

Of course there was a general multicolored program at this city championship. For the small visitors there was also a special care of children. Ralf Grun (EBPA) carried personally for the well-being of the guests with his team.

The supply was gladly assumed and among the participants were also many curious spectators.

The tournament went over two days and each player fought in a marathon-tournament over six hours play time for the highest score. The tournament field consisted of 42 participants, about the half was from Duisburg. Seven beginners played their first Black Jack tournament and were inspired of it.

The new Black Jack master is called Frank Gerhards, he played here his first Black Jack tournament.

Vice Black Jack master became Mrs. Elke Hahnen, third became Mr. Albert Esser senior.

Everybody was pleased about the special prizes, which were made available by the ISA-CASINOS and the sponsors. The participation to the 3. EBPA & ISA-CASINOS Black Jack city championship was for free.

The second German EBPA & ISA-CASINOS Black Jack championship is on the 23rd and 24th november in the XXL sport center.

Registrations for Black Jack seminars and the second German Black Jack championship receive Ralf Grun under 0203-760289 or info@e-b-p-a.de and info@isa-casinos.de.