

iGaming North America: Advanced registration rate ends on Saturday!

Remember to „sign up to attend iGaming North America conference“:<http://www.igamingnorthamerica.com/Register/tabid/107/Default.aspx> by the 11th April 2015, and take advantage of the advanced registration rate.

Branded „Reality Check,“ the conference will be talking about some key issues in the industry. Below are some conference highlights.

* The session „The Daily Fantasy Sports Revolution“ is being run by Draft Kings and will give an excellent overview of fantasy sports – what’s gone on so far, and where it’s going.

* The „State of the States“ panel has key legislators from California, Pennsylvania and New York. There will be a discussion of legislative proposals from the various states with bills filed to legalize iGaming. Delegates will be able to get a better sense of some of those key states and whether they’ll move forward.

* Sports betting will be key 2015 and we see the return of the mock trial, which will be about the New Jersey case and then there is the session „Progress Report -The Legalization of Sports Betting“ that includes representatives from ESPN, Don Best Sports and Senator Lesniak. Prior to the sports betting session we will have a taped message from Senator John McCain about his thoughts on sports betting as he’s now come out saying we should have some hearings and debates.

You can view the „full conference schedule here“:<http://www.igamingnorthamerica.com/2015Program/ScheduledSessions/tabid/121/Default.aspx>, and the „expert speakers here“:<http://www.igamingnorthamerica.com/Program/Speakers/tabid/124/Default.aspx>.

The iGaming North America Conference will take place on the 14th – 16th April 2015 and is the premier networking and educational event based around the convergence of landbased and online gambling. For more information on the event please go to www.iGamingNorthAmerica.com“:<http://www.igamingnorthamerica.com>